Governors' written statement of general principles to guide the Executive Head In determining measures to promote good behaviour

The Education and Inspections Act 2006 requires Governors to make, and from time to time review, a written statement of general principles to guide the Executive Head in determining measures to promote good behaviour. Practical applications of these principles are the responsibility of the Executive Head. This policy should, therefore, be read in conjunction with the schools' 'Behaviour for Learning' policy. This statement has been adopted by the Governing Body as a whole, following consultation with the Headteacher, parents, students and staff.

At the Federation of St Anne's and St. Martin's Catholic Primary Schools, we value everyone as an individual, capable of growth, change and development.

We wish to achieve the highest possible standards of positive behaviour in both schools and to enable all members of the school communities to live by the following Gospel values:

"Love your neighbour as yourself."

So that:

"Whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them ..."

Our relationships are underpinned by the principles of equality, mutual respect, fairness and consistency. We have high expectations that support the development of young people as effective and responsible citizens.

The purpose of this statement is to give guidance to the Executive Head in drawing up the behaviour and discipline policy by stating the principles that Governors expect to be followed.

The purpose of the behaviour and discipline policy is:

- to fulfil the Governors' duty of care to students and employees;
- to promote high standards of teaching and learning and high standards of attainment; and
- to preserve the reputation of the school.

The Governors expect any policy or actions to be in accordance with their responsibilities under equality legislation.

The purpose of rewards and sanctions is:

- To promote positive behaviour that enables all students to learn and make progress;
- To support pupils to reflect on their own behaviour and change
- To celebrate achievements in social and emotional attitudes and behaviour
- To demonstrate that misbehaviour is not acceptable;
- To express the disapproval of the school community about poor or unacceptable behaviour;

And

- To deter other students from similar poor behaviour.

It is recognised that the application of rewards and sanctions must have regard to the individual situation and the individual student and the Executive Head expected to use her discretion in their use. Sanctions should however be applied fairly, consistently, proportionately and reasonably, taking into account special educational needs, disability and the needs of vulnerable children, and offering support as necessary.

The Governors expect students and parents to cooperate to maintain an orderly climate for learning.

The Governors wish to emphasise that violence, threatening behaviour or abuse by students or parents towards school staff will not be tolerated. If a parent does not conduct himself/herself properly, the school may ban them from the school's premises and, if the parent continues to cause nuisance or disturbance, he or she may be liable to prosecution. The effectiveness of this statement in guiding the Executive Head is kept under review by the Governing Body, with a formal review and re-adoption every three years. Any substantial changes to the principles will be consulted upon, as described above.
