St Martin's Catholic Primary School

October 2018

You will receive a monthly bulletin from the Governors to update you on our work.

We will shortly have a photo board displayed in both schools so that you can see who your Federation Governors are.

We plan to refresh the contents of the website and will be provide headlines from Full Governing Body Meetings.

Minutes from these meetings will also be available for you

Governor Visibility

This term we are focusing on being more visible around school, and at school events.

Below are the dates were we will be present in school next month.

At the first Full Governing Body meeting of the term,

17th September, we agreed new governance structure to help focus our work.

Please come & talk to us and find out more about our role across the Federation.

We would like to hear what suggestions you may have.
